A limited number of small advertisements inserted at established rates.

—Concert this evening.
—Two burning fires on Saturday evening.
—The steamer Ordway arrived down on Sunday.
—The Shubrick left for Tillamook rock yesterday.
—Regular meeting of the common council this evening.

—The weather has at last changed. We may now expect a fine spell.
—The bark Ryevale, laden with tin for this port, is outside with pilot on board.
—Messrs. G. T. Myers and H. B. Parker returned from San Francisco by the State of California yesterday.

—The British bark Aberlemo arrived down on Sunday in tow of the Ocklamma, Johnson pilot.
—Mr. L. E. Selig, formerly with E. C. Holden, eq., has associated himself with Mr. E. A. Quinn.
—Mrs. John Fox left for the valley this morning on a visit to her parents, to be absent some two months.

—A dispatch from Hon. D. C. Ireland states that he reached Chicago on Sunday last and that he would leave eastward to-day.
—Tickets for the concert this evening for sale at Dement's. Reserved seats seventy-five cents, gallery fifty cents, children half price. Doors open at 7 o'clock, concert will begin at 8.

—The American bark Belle of Bath, wheat laden from this port, arrived at Liverpool February 4th. The British ship City of Madrid, also from this port, arrived at Queenstown on the same day.
—Mrs. E. A. Corwin left yesterday morning to be in attendance at the Woman's suffrage convention in Portland, and also to witness the grand carnival by the Ancient Order of United Workmen, to-morrow evening.

—The State of California crossed the bar about half past ten o'clock yesterday forenoon, but was unable to reach Astoria until half past one, on account of the heavy fog. She discharged 106 tons of freight before proceeding up river.
—The concert to be given by the Young Men's Western band at Liberty hall this evening promises to outlive anything of the kind ever given in this city. This assertion is confirmed by the progress of the band since its organization. The large number of tickets already sold assure the boys that the hall will be well filled.

—If our friends throughout the county and along the river would occasionally send us such items of news as might come under their observation they would not only confer a favor upon us but would aid in rendering THE ASTORIAN more attractive. We aim to publish a live local paper, and we want to make it interesting. Hence drop us a line occasionally.
—The mammoth balance wheel of Hume's mill was received from Portland on Saturday and placed in position on Sunday, and on examination on Monday morning the hub was found to be bursted clear across, in consequence of which the wheel will have to be reshipped to Portland, delaying the operation of the mill for another week. The management informs us that it is their intention to run day and night upon the restarting of the mill.

—During the recent cold weather the city council of Walla-walla passed a law making parties clean the snow off their sidewalks.
—Nicolai Brothers have purchased the mill which has so long lain idle at Columbia city and will hereafter run it to its full capacity.

—We understand that a large and commodious boarding and lodging house will be fitted up by Mrs. Arrigoni, foot of Concomly street.
—The Dalles Mountaineer shows a decided improvement, having discarded its patent outside and now furnishes its patrons with a live journal gotten up entirely at home.

—The growth of The Dalles is substantiated by the amount of money expended in building and improvements during the past year, which foots up to the sum of $287,800. The Mountaineer states that the building operations of the coming year will far exceed that of 1880.

—Latest reports of the flood show that the Columbia is backing up the river at Portland. The Willamet has risen nearly four feet since Friday, but the upper Willamet is falling slowly. East of the mountains the streams are booming, flooding Pendleton. Two men were drowned near Grange city.

—There is money to be made by getting your bill heads printed. You can send such a bill through mail to a customer any where, for one cent, while one made out in writing, can't be sent for less than letter postage. A thousand bill heads printed cost from six and a half to seven dollars, and one can save on that lot on postage alone $20. Can't you see the milk in the coconut?

—A postal card from Hon. D. C. Ireland, written while on his way from San Francisco to Ogden, informs us that number two, Pacific express, bound west, which they should meet at 11:42 A. M. 2d inst., at Iron point, was held by the sheriff of Lander county for Central Pacific railroad taxes. This kept them waiting some time at Golconda where they passed away the time in sight-seeing and bath-taking in Golconda hot springs.

—We were in error a few days ago in our item stating that Major Throckmorton would take command of fort Canby, of which Col. Eltonhead was in command (as we said). Major Throckmorton merely transfers his company from fort Stevens, of which he is now in command, to fort Canby, where he will serve under Gen. Graham, who is now, and has been in command of fort Canby for some time past. Col. Eltonhead and company, now stationed at Canby, will relieve Major Throckmorton of the command of fort Stevens. Matters in this direction appear so mixed that we refrain from further mention as to the objects of these movements and we await further and more reliable information.

—The new improved Franconia range, kept by Magnus C. Crosby, stands at the top of the market.
—Gray's wood yard is now fitted up on the wharf foot of Benton street, and prepared to deliver wood to any part of the city sawed to any length, and full measure.

—Attention every one! Have you heard of Kendall's Spavin Cure? See advertisement.
—Fresh smelt at Warren & Eatons.
—An excellent variety of valentines, entirely new, at Adlers book store.

—Warrantee deeds at THE ASTORIAN office.
—For the best Beer in Astoria, call for the Columbia Brewery Beer, acknowledged to be superior to all others.
—Come and see those beautiful chronos, already framed, at fifteen cents each. Five hundred different objects will be opened on the arrival of the Columbia, at Adlers book store.

—Frank Faber has removed into Dr. Kinsey's building on Water street. On the road to the steamer dock from down town, before breakfast, it will now be handy to drop in and get a cup of coffee.
—Shipping Receipt Books for sale at this office.
—When you want a dish of nice Eastern Oysters done up a la mode, or a good steak, or a fragrant cup of coffee, call at Frank Fabres on the roadway, and he will accommodate you. Open at all hours.

—Bath tubs, water closets, sinks and hot water apparatus, furnished hotels and private residences, at lowest rates and shortest notice, by Magnus C. Crosby, at the little tin shop "round the corner."
—Salmon bellies, at retail, at Warren & Eatons.
—Magnus C. Crosby has a first-class workman, and is prepared to do all kinds of jobbing in tin, sheet iron and copper, plumbing and steam fitting. Full satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Professional Bummers.
We had supposed that the reception given professional tramps in this city some time since had rid us of that profound nuisance, but alas, we notice them again the past few days, standing on the street corners, stout, healthy and robust fellows, begging for a quarter with which to get something to eat. If their honesty is as they represent, we should judge that instead of not having anything to eat for twenty-four hours, as they say, they were blessed with over a dozen meals within an hour, according to the contributions given. We noticed one a few nights since who appeared to have been so well received that he got as full as a tick. Another kept his word better, apparently taking enough meals to last a week. The third stood in front of a saloon on Chenamus street. The first man to come along was a well-to-do farmer living on Clatsop plains, who was accosted by this "poor unfortunate fellow" who represented himself as being dead broke and was desirous of securing a place on a ranch where he could earn his board until fishing season. He intimated with tears in his eyes that he had parted with the bulk of his wardrobe at a sacrifice for the purpose of "keeping the wolf from the door," but that he had still in his possession a butcher knife which he was willing to dispose of for four bits. Our farmer's heart was touched, and so he said: "My friend, you look like a sober, well disposed fellow, I can give you a chance on my farm, about seven miles from town, where you can make yourself useful for your board during this hard spell, and, in the meantime here's your four bits. When will you be ready to go out with me?" The stalwart's eyes glistened as he pocketed the coin, and straightening himself up he replied: "Well I guess I'll be ready to go out next fall. Good day."

Heaps of Fun.
There is an unaccountable fascination to some men in the keeping of a ferocious dog which terrorizes the neighborhood. The bigger and fiercer the brute, and the more likely he is to get loose, the more his owner enjoys life, and the prospect of coming home some day and hearing that a woman or a child next door has a series of holes in their anatomy exactly corresponding to the teeth of his pet. One of these beautiful animals, a large Newfoundland, managed to slip his chain the other day, and made for a little boy who was standing on the top of a hill near seven months old, he is about the by. Although the brute is only size of the six-year boy. He knocked the boy down, caught him by the right hip and shook him as if he were a rat, lacerated his scalp, his eye, his ears and his back. After he got tired of this sport he allowed his owner's wife to take him away. The beast has long been the terror of the city and the neighbors want him shot. But his owner won't listen to that. He will not deprive himself of the fun of seeing his neighbors go half a mile out of the way to avoid his house, or of witnessing his shaking a boy up well, now and then. As a compromise he'll do the fair thing and pay the doctor's bill.

Central Hotel.
The Central hotel, near the steamship dock is now open for the reception of guests, where the well known caterer, Mr. Anton Beloh will always be found ready to wait on his patrons. He has had the above named house thoroughly refitted by Messrs. Pike and Stockton, our well known artists. Call and see him, as he has the finest brands of liquors and cigars to be had in the city.

Something New and Choice.
Have you already tasted the delicious smoked sardines, excellently adapted for luncheon or supper? If not, try them at once. Ask your grocer for them; they are put up expressly for family use.

Mallets, Gaff and Copper Handles.
Cannerymen work will be done in good style by Henry Gallou, Astoria, Oregon. If you will give him your orders now he can be doing the work in full time, making it advantageous to all parties.

Piano Tuning.
Mr. A. L. Francis, dealer in pianos and organs and professional tuner and repairer, will be in the city a few days. Those wishing to buy on the best profitable terms will do well to give him a call. He will recommend nothing but first-class instruments. Orders may be left at the post-office or Mrs. Munson's.

J. W. Munson.
Is getting impatient waiting for some of those promises to pay balances due on account of steamer Magnet. He don't want to make costs, but is liable to do so.

AROUND THE CITY.
—A full assortment of counter and grocers scales can be found at M. C. Crosby's, at bottom prices.
—P. J. Goodman, on Main street, has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gent and ladies boots, shoes, etc.
—For a first-class oyster stew, fry, pan-roast or fancy roast, go to Roscoe's, on Main street, opposite N. Loeb's. Families supplied by the hundred or the sack, opened or in the shell.
—Mr. J. Stewart, stone and marble cutter of Astoria will guarantee satisfaction to all ordering work of him, and will do a better job for less money than any outside workman. His work in the cemetery here should be sufficient recommendation. Before you let your contractors work of this kind it would be well to call upon Mr. Stewart.

From a Prominent Physician.
Washingtonville, Ohio, June 17th, 1880. Reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure and having a valuable and speedy horse which had been lame from spavin eighteen months, I sent to you for a bottle by express, which in six weeks removed all lameness and enlargement and a large splint from another horse, and both horses are to-day as sound as colts. The one bottle was worth to me one hundred dollars. Yours truly, M. A. Bertollett, M. D. Read advertisement.

Tin Plate, Pig Tin, Etc.
Geo. W. Hume keeps constantly on hand, and to arrive a full line of fishermen and cannery supplies, at prices which defy competition. Parties wishing groceries and those intending to run mess houses should inspect goods and obtain large discount from regular price.

Syphon Study Lamp.
Hon. I. W. Case, of Astoria, in placing the new Syphon study lamp on the market, would call the attention of the trade to some of its merits. Its illuminating qualities are not equalled by any study lamp in use. It gives a steady, brilliant light; is free from unpleasant odor; does not drip either when burning or not burning; easily lighted and trimmed, and is without exception, the most convenient lamp to fill ever made. Directions accompanying each lamp. Call upon Mr. Case and buy one. He sells them at remarkable low rates.

Ladies Attention.
A beautiful assortment of coral, jet, and steel jewelry, now all the fashion, will be opened at Adlers in a few days. Also a large stock of other new goods.

AMUSEMENTS.
HILL'S VARIETIES.
Geo. Hill, proprietor, Fred Gere, manager.—The entertainment will conclude with "Dr. Fowler" or "Mesmerism," and the "new wedding party" by Nickerson and Staley. The evenings amusements to commence with the ever popular first part, Nickerson and Staley as the funny men, Gere in monologue, Miss Morrison in new ballads, Morice in vocal gems, Mr. Richard Bruce with his drum solo. Staley with his champion jig, Gere with his German eccentricities, and a very pathetic ballad by a pathetic individual, whose name pathetically is Nickerson. Nine people on the first part, and an exhibition equal to any on the coast. Mr. Hill invites criticism. Come and see for yourself. New orchestral selections and new music on the grand stand under the leadership of Mr. George Lambert at 6:30 P. M. The entertainment will begin at 7:30 P. M. Entrance on Benton street. Private boxes on Chenamus.

—Fresh leaf lard at Warren and Eatons.
—If you want a good big oyster stew in style, call around to Tom Smiths, next door to P. H. Fox, Main street Astoria, Oregon. Open at all hours.

—Since the Chinese started to brew "cheap San Francisco beer" there is little or no demand for that article any more. Call for the Columbia brewery beer, if you want something good.
—A nice lot of eastern oysters at Roscoe's, arrived yesterday by steamer Columbia. Call around. You will find them first class.

—P. Wilhelm, Bliss saloon, opposite the Clarendon hotel, Portland, Oregon.
—Persons desiring to subscribe for the daily Oregonian will find it to their advantage to call at the City Book store, as we furnish it for less money than other agents.
